

TREMÉDICA

Asociación Internacional de Traductores y Redactores de Medicina y Ciencias Afines

PATRONAGE

TREMÉDICA is a non-profit organization created in 2005 to encourage the reasoned and rigorous use of scientific language and to support the professional development of its members and medical translators generally.

The association is registered under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, so that all donations and contributions are 100% deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Tremédica is seeking the patronage of individuals, academic institutions, public organizations, and private businesses who share its concern for and dedication to language. Such help is indispensable to the uninterrupted offering of the association's distinguished products and services, and to the undertaking of new projects for translators and terminologists specialized in the biomedical sciences.

Tremédica offers direct benefits, listed below, to its sponsors. But most important, it provides an opportunity to link their names with a highly prestigious association and to Panace@, the unique, world-renowned journal dedicated to medicine and translation.

We offer different types of sponsorships:

A) Top-tier Sponsors: 1000 € and up.

Benefits:

1. Listing with permanent logo and link on the Tremédica website (www.tremedica.org) and a preferred spot on the Sponsors' page (<http://www.tremedica.org/patrocinadores.html>) for one year.
2. Listing with logo and link at a preferred spot on the Sponsors' page of Panace@ for one year (two issues).
3. Subscription of five users, of the sponsor's choice, to Tremédica's terminology and general forums, with full participation and all benefits granted to full members for all activities organized by the association.

B) General Sponsors: 600 € up to 1000 €

Benefits:

1. Listing with banner logo and link on the association's website (www.tremedica.org) and preferred spot on the Sponsors' page/ (<http://www.tremedica.org/patrocinadores.html>) for one year.
2. Listing of logo on the Sponsor's page of Panace@ for one year (two issues).
3. Subscription of two users, of the sponsor's choice, to Tremédica's terminology and general forums, with full participation and all benefits granted to full members for all activities organized by the association.

TREMÉDICA

Asociación Internacional de Traductores y Redactores de Medicina y Ciencias Afines

C) Sponsorships are also available for specific activities, such as symposiums, conferences, workshops, courses, publications, etc., including:

- A specific amount, according to the activity (minimum 200 €).
- Mention of the sponsorship at the opening and close of the activity.
- Mention of the sponsorship with logo and hyperlink on all websites promoting the activity.
- Sponsor's logo in all printed material, or any other promotional media related to the activity.
- Right to commercial promotion whenever possible (according to the nature of the activity).
- Display of corporate promotional material whenever possible (according to the nature of the activity).
- Admission of one individual at the discounted fee for members, or free admission for contributions over twice the minimum.

D) The sponsor can also contribute by underwriting expenses for a conference speaker.

E) Another way to contribute is to cover the expenses of an specific activity, such as a round table, an inaugural reception of a conference, an official closing dinner, excursions, etc.

F) For D) and E), and whenever a contribution is in kind (for example, print materials, such as textbooks, dictionaries, glossaries, etc. created by the sponsor), the organizer(s) of the particular activity will decide what benefits and rights will be offered as compensation for the contribution.