

Palabra e Imagen

signet-ring cell

Luis Pestana

Definición: «Carcinoma, signet-ring cell. A poorly differentiated adenocarcinoma in which the nucleus is pressed to one side by a cytoplasmic droplet of mucus. It usually arises in the gastrointestinal system.» [Medical Subject Headings, MEDLINE]

Propuesta de traducción: célula en anillo de sello.

Imagen: procedente de [<http://dpalm.med.uth.tmc.edu/cytopath/signet1.htm>]

